

Program NAV dairy workshop 19 January 2023

Program

- 9.30-9.40 Welcome and introduction, Lars Inge Gunnarsson
- 9.40-9.55 International genetic evaluation
Future genetic evaluation - Joint Nordic or joint European? (Lars Inge Gunnarsson and Gert Pedersen Aamand)
- 9.55-10.10 Experiences having a joint Nordic and French genetic evaluation for Jersey. (Oliver Bulot)
- 10.10-10.30 Branding and optimization of NTM
The value of NTM and other Nordic breeding values (NAV communication group)
- Branding, available tools,
 - Indication of optimum for type traits at the search page
- 10.30-10.45 Brush up NTM questions from May 2022 - focus saved feed, sexed semen and beef semen (NAV technical group)
- 10.45-10.50 Introduction group work (NAV communication group)
- 10.50-11.00 Coffee break
- 11.00-12.30 Group work NTM related questions
- 12.30-13.15 Lunch
- 13.15-13.35 Genetic improvement of beef bulls to be used in dairy herds
Genetic evaluation traits to consider - today and in the future (NAV coworkers)
- 13.35-13.50 Possibilities and challenges establishing efficient selection tools and breeding programs for beef breeds used in dairy herds. (Line Hjortø and Gert Pedersen Aamand)
- 13.50-14.00 Discussion
- 14.00-14.15 Coffee break
- 14.15-14.45 Access to data
Access to more data from automatic registration systems on Nordic cattle data bases – status and plans, Nordic group for data harmonisation (Jesper Kring, Jaana Kiljunen, Terhi Vahlsten and Sofia Nyman)
- 14.45-15.20 Branding and optimization of NTM continued
Reports from group work, NAV communication group
- 15.20-15.30 Evaluation and closing

Notes for group work will be send out 1-2 weeks before the meeting